USEFUL HINTS.

THE WHITE OF AN EGG is said to be a specific for fish bones sticking in the throat. It is to be swallowed raw. Remember it.

JAPANESE CEMENT is made by mixing powdered rice with a little cold water, and then gradually adding boiling water, until a proper consistency is acquired, being careful to keep it continuously stirred; lastly, it must be boiled for one minute in a clean saucepan. This glue is white and almost transparent, and is well adapted for work which requires a strong and odorless cement.

WARM MILK AS A BEVERAGE.—Milk heated to about 100 degrees Fahrenheit loses for the time a degree of its sweetness and its density. No one who, fatigued by over-exercising of body or mind, has ever experienced the reviving influence of a tumbler of this beverage, heated as hot as it can be kept, will willingly forego a resort to it because of its having been rendered somewhat less acceptable to the palate. The promptness with which its cordial influence is felt is indeed surprising. Some portion of it seems to be digested and appropriated almost immediately; and many who fancy that they need alcoholic stimulants when exhausted by fatigue will find in this simple draught an equivalent that will be abundantly satisfying and more enduring in its effects.

TO CLEAN KID GLOVES.—Get one quart of dioxidized benzene, one drachm of sulphuric ether, one drachm of chloroform, two drachms of alcohol. Cologne oil can be added, if desired. Pour a little of this into a clean bowl, and wash the gloves in it as you would wash anything. After the dirt is nearly out, immerse the gloves in the clean fluid. Usually one rinsing is enough, but if the gloves were very much soiled rinse the second time. If the gloves are of cheap kid it is best to dry them on the hand; but a nice glove, after having been rubbed with a soft cloth to smooth out wrinkles, may be hung on a line to dry. This preparation is an excellent thing to keep in the house, not only for cleaning gloves, but for taking out grease spots from clothing and carpets, and for spotting coat-collars and felt hats.

ECONOMY AND CARE OF CLOTHING.—One of the most important items in the family expenses is the clothing, especially as there is so much of what is called "cheap" goods. It is, perhaps, not too much to say that the majority of people buy lower priced clothing. But as a matter of fact, they are the most expensive goods that can be worn. A strong, fine-textured, well-made article will outwear at least three of this poor material, and it does not really cost as much, considering the amount of wear, to say nothing of the shabby appearance of faded cloth—the vexation of having the garments continually breaking to pieces, the messes, the dirt, the repairs, with the unsafe feeling when one steps a little high, or puts on an unusual strain. The excuse which we have suggested for buying such goods we know is a hard one to meet, being in a majority of cases the want of money to get better goods. But it is better to make the old coat last a little longer and put all the money in the rest of the suit, and then the money will soon be left to buy a new one. As a wise and economical rule, one should never purchase anything but a good article.

A SENSIBLE WRITER advises those who would enjoy good eating to keep good-natured; "for," says he, "an angry man can't tell whether he is eating boiled cabbage or stewed umbrella."

"MR. DEAR BOY," wrote an Irishman to his son, "never permit the tomorrow what you have done to-day."

Belshazzar and his Brother Bill.

Belshazzar Smith had a very bad and very dangerous habit of walking in his sleep. His family feared that during one of his somnambulatory saunterings he would charge out of the window and kill himself, so they surrounded him with a net of rope around his neck and the other end around little William.

The very first night after this arrangement was made, Belshazzar dreamed that a burglar was pursuing him with a dagger. So he crept over William's slumbering form, jumped out on the floor and slid under the bed. Hostetter there a while, and then, his nightmare changing, he emerged upon the other side of the bed, and he got under the cover in his old place.

The rope, it will be observed, was beneath the bed, it was pulled taut, too. Early in the morning Belshazzar, about half-awake, scoured over against William; to his surprise the movement jerked William clear out of bed. Belshazzar leaped out of bed to assist the cause of the phenomenon, and at the same time his brother disappeared under the bed. Belshazzar, hardly awake, was scared, and he dived beneath the bedstead; as he did so he heard William skimming across the bed-clothes over his head. Once more he rushed out, just in time to see William glide over the other side. Belshazzar just then became sufficiently conscious to feel the rope pulling on him. He comprehended the situation at once and disengaged himself.

Perhaps little William was not mad. He was in the hospital, undergoing repairs, for about three weeks, and when he came out he had a strange desire to sleep alone.

Belshazzar now anchors himself to an anchor.

Flowers.

All lovers of flowers should remember that one blossom allowed to mature or go to seed injures the plant more than a dozen new buds. Cut your flowers off of them before they begin to fade. Adorn your rooms with them, put them in a vase, send bouquets to your friends who have no flowers, or exchange favors with those who have. You will find that the more you cut off the more you will have. All roses, after they have ceased to bloom should be cut back, that the strength of the root may go to form new roots for the next year.

Geopel Truth.

He that is sure for a stranger, shall smart for it. But he that trusts in Spring Blossoms for curing liver, kidney, and complaints of a like tendency, shall never be disappointed. Price 50 cents, trial bottles 10 cents.

Sold by A. J. Roberts and F. Sherer & Co.

HUMORS OF THE DAY.

Does a man break into humor when he cracks a joke?

It is no longer a matter of style to have a high forehead. A cow has that, and she is very lowly.

It is said that a student of "Poor Tom's" a cold, "but Tom and Jerry's hot,"—Boston Commercial Bulletin.

This best description we have ever heard of a slow man was that he was too slow to get out of his own way.—Lowell Courier.

When the washerwoman calls for a young man's linen, does that make her a shirt-caller? Neckst.—Stevensville Herald.

"Money makes my ma go," said little Skeekies when his mother, armed with a $20 greenback, left for a down-town shopping tour.

ENQUIRY: Are plants in a sleeping room unhealthy? Not necessarily. We've seen some very healthy plants growing in sleeping rooms.

Don't you think that Miss Brown is a very sweet girl? "Oh, yes," replied Harry, "that is to say, she is well preserved."

"Are you dead, Tim?" said an Irish father to his son, who had fallen down a well. "Not dead, father, but spacheless," came up from the depths.

No woman ever contented is. No matter what she's got, for when she builds a little house she always wants a lot.

"It is poor taste to laugh at your own jokes," said Fenderson. "Something I never do, though I do say it." "Does anybody else ever laugh at them?" asked Fogg.

A BROOKLYN man has just found his sister from whom he has been separated fifty years. She was the cook in his boarding house, and he recognized the style of her hair.

"HAVE you any faith in mince pie as a cure for headache?" asked one young married lady of another. "Yes," was the reply, "bring out your mince pie, I got mince-pie headaches regularly."

When Brown complained of a rush of blood to the head Fogg endeavored to ease his mind by reminding him that nature abhors a vacuum, and Brown's blood rushed to his head worse than ever.

"MAN and wife are all one, are they?" said a man. "Yes," said the other, "and suspiciously." "What," said the first, "I said my wife, 'I come home awfully tipsy last night and feel terribly ashamed of myself this morning.' He never said a word."

At a young ladies' seminary recently, during an examination in history, one of the pupils was interrogated thus: "Mary, did Martin Luther die a natural death?" "No," was the reply; "he was excommunicated by a bull."—Harvard Lampoon.

LITTLE EDITH was terribly sleepy the other night. She began her customary prattle upon falling, but when she got far as "Our Father," her eyes closed, and her head tumbled on to the pillow. "I don't say it to-night," she said, "I'm too sleepy. He knows the rest of it."

A LECTURER was once in a dilemma which he will probably never forget. While talking about art he ventured the assertion, "Art can never improve nature." And at that moment some one in the audience cried out in a gruff voice, "Can't it? Well, then, how do you think you would look without your wig?"

"Memory is a wonderful thing," said Jack Miller to his friend Dan Watts. "Just think of what a fellow's head can hold!" "I giggle," said Jack. "I giggle," said Dan. "I have often heard your friends say you have a very fine memory, Jack." Miller (laughingly). "Well, that's very kind. Yes, I have a pretty good memory." Watts. "Do you think you can recall the ten dollars I lent you three years ago?"

In Other Words, It Don't Pay.

A New York street-car conductor having spent nearly the whole of one day arresting and prosecuting an evil boy who threw a lump of coal through the car window, a philosophical comrade on the same line observed, "If that dem boy make dot foolishness, but I bodder not minesself mit dot. Nefter I can see dot boy vat makes him. Vat for shall I? Ven I see him, I lose me a half a day, goin' by de court. De company pays me nothing for dot. Maybe it was bad for de passengers dot their eyes got knock out by dem boys, but I don't can afford I bodder minesself by dot."

Embossed silver vases have been found in a tomb in Sweden, and have been bought by the Stockholm Museum. Four dates from the twelfth century, and of long and to the twentieth century, and the other three are older still. All bear quaint designs and one has a Runic inscription.

Cats of History.

A. C. Swinburne writes to the London Spectator "I send you a woodcut of cats which were told to be connected with my family—in which, I may add, cat worship has been for centuries a hereditary legacy. One, when its master was lying wounded night to death, watched for many days and nights at the door of his room; it would not be lured or driven away till at last it was possible for the convalescent to receive his faithful and inconstant friend, whose custody may, rather, may not be imagined. So much for the charge of personal indifference brought against cats by those who prefer the promiscuous and obtrusive caresses or solicitations lavished by dogs on almost any stranger, to the choice and constant affection which cats, with the instinct peculiar to babies and themselves, reserve with such scrupulous self-respect for those in whom they recognize a true reciprocal attraction—an unmistakable innate affinity."

My second story illustrates only that attachment to places which is more commonly recognized as a feline property, but illustrates it in so singular a degree that it may, perhaps be thought worthy of this passing record. A favorite cat—I know not whether the same was the hero or heroine of the story just given—was conveyed to London from a country house in the depth of Northumberland, and missed afterward it arrived at its home half starved and wholly fallen from its high estate as a cat of quality and distinction, but recognizable by the household left in charge, having smelt or inquired its way back on foot along a course of some 300 miles, which it had just before traversed in a carriage for the same time.

Briefs.

Vote the entire Republican ticket.

Many of our merchants, to-day, put out their awnings.

The Rock county jail now contains nineteen prisoners.

The thermometer went up to 72 degrees above zero yesterday.

We hear that Mr. D. R. Proper is very sick, with little or no hope of recovery.

The street sprinklers were out to-day, and did good work in laying down the dust.

Hon. William Menzies marketed a four hundred and ninety-five pound pig in our market to-day.

General James Bintliff, of the Darlington Republican, was a guest at the Myers house to-day.

Two tramps were run in on Saturday night, but were turned loose and ordered out of town on Sunday morning.

The wreck of the cotton factory fire has been cleared up, and the foundation is now ready for the new building.

Extra copies of Saturday's issue of the Gazette, containing the new city charter, can be obtained at the counting room of this office.

Messrs. A. B. Edwards and A. F. Phillips, have sold a span of finely matched horses to Alexander Mitchell Milwaukee, for $1,000 cash.

Mr. James P. Gould, an extensive lumber merchant, of Oshkosh, and his son, spent Sunday in the city with the sister of the former—Miss M. E. Gould.

The little five year old son of Mr. M. Paley, of the Fifth ward, was burned yesterday afternoon. The funeral services were held at St. Patrick's church.

An order was issued by the municipal court this morning, changing the place of Penny's trial to the circuit court, on account of the prejudice of the municipal judge.

Messrs. Hogboom & Atwood are having their new ice house painted, similar in color to the old one. This improvement vastly improves the large building in appearance.

For the week ending March 31st, there were paid at the Janesville post-office money order department, 183 orders, amounting to $2,768.76. During the same time 207 orders were issued, amounting to $2,216.89, the fees of which were $24.20, making a total of $5,009.85.

Professor William B. Chamberlain, leader of the Oberlin Glee Club, preached at the Congregational church yesterday morning, and preached well. Four members of the Oberlin Glee Club joined the choir, which gave additional interest to the song service.

The Republican candidates for school commissioners in the Second and Fourth Wards, Messrs. C. L. Valentine and Isaac Farnsworth, will be elected without much, if any opposition. They are good men, and have served the public well in the same positions.

In the municipal court this afternoon Jake Togerson and John Ash, of Fulton, were brought up on the charge of selling liquor without a license. Both cases were adjourned on account of witnesses on the part of the state not being present. J. W. Sale appeared for the state, and Wm. Smith, for defendants.

The New York Clipper, in its personal column, has this to say of a former Janesville Mutual boy: "A. J. Bushong, one of the most gentlemanly and intelligent of professional players, recently graduated, with high honors, in the dental department of the Pennsylvania University."

The Rev. Mr. Curtis, of Court Street church, delivered a very interesting discourse last evening on the poet Longfellow. He brought out in strong light the grand traits of character of the man who has done more for the homes of the people in this country and in Europe than any poet of the century.

Marshall Hogan has succeeded in capturing Thomas Dorsey, implicated with others, in robbing freight cars at the depot in this city; and has found two more tubs of butter and a keg of beer, which were taken from the cars of the C. M. & St. P. R. R., on Thursday night. The other parties are known, and the marshal will soon have them in the county jail.

The constabulary force of the city, as at present nominated by the Republicans, is: J. H. Taylor, in the First Ward; A. C. Kuts, in the Second Ward; H. B. Kenniston in the Third Ward; John F. Drake, in the Fourth Ward, and N. E. Bennett in the Fifth Ward. They are good men and will be confirmed by the people at the polls to-morrow.

Mr. Metcalf, of the First ward, Mr. Brownell, of the Second, Mr. Kimball, of the Third, and Mr. Sheldon, of the Fourth, were re-nominated by the Republicans for Supervisors. They have made excellent officers and every one of them should be re-elected. Mr. Wray, of the Fifth ward, is also the Republican nominee for Supervisor, and would make a good member.

The Democrats of the Second Ward will make an attempt to-morrow to split the Republican vote on Alderman, by substituting Mr. Pease, in place of Mr. D. C. Ward, who has declined the nomination. The Republicans will look well to their tickets and see that Mr. Oscar F. Nowlan's name is on it for that office. Mr. Nowlan has served well and faithfully in the council, and should receive, as he will, a good majority for his return to that body.

The Weather.

REPORTED BY FRANKLIN & EVANS, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer this morning at seven o'clock stood 45 degrees above zero, and at one o'clock in the afternoon at 71 degrees above. Clear.

WASHINGTON, April 2, 1 a. m.—The following are the indications for to-day;

Mr. Emory Patch, foreman of the machine shop of the Doty Works, had his left hand badly cut by a buzz saw, this afternoon. It seems that the saw had been partially stopped, and Mr. Patch picked up a board to stop it, when the saw caught his hand, cutting the index finger to the bone, and making a severe flesh wound across the palm. The wound is a severe one, and will necessarily lay Mr. Patch up for some time, until the wound heals. The injuries were attended by Dr. Q. O. Sutherland.

Mr. James S. McGowan desires the Gazette to emphatically state that he declines to run as a candidate on the Democratic ticket for Sealer of Weights and Measures. Mr. McGowan declined the nomination on Saturday night before the convention adjourned, but the delegates would not listen to him. He now desires all his friends to support Mr. Alex. Denning, the Republican candidate for that office. Mr. McGowan will be at the Second Ward poll on to-morrow, and work for the election of John R. Bennett to be judge of the circuit court.

On Friday, the venerable Mrs. Maria Theresa Seymour, mother of Mrs. Dr. Whiting, and Mr. E. L. Dimock, passed her eighty-fourth birthday anniversary. In honor of the occasion her children, grand children, and great grand children gathered about her with words of kindly cheer which momentarily lightened the burden of accumulated years. The grand old lady is still largely in possession of her faculties, and ready to discuss any controverted point in ecclesiastical history with any one venturesome enough to challenge her. May her faith never be shaken, and may her occasional sun shine brightly till the light from the golden gate shines upon her.

The Republicans of the several wards have nominated good men for the offices of alderman of their respective wards. Ed. Murdoch, of the First ward, and O. F. Nowlan, of the Second, have each served two years in the council, and their official worth is known to the public. They deserve the cordial support of the Republicans, and all others who desire the prosperity of the city to continue. They will be elected by good majorities. In the Third, Fourth, and Fifth wards, new men have been nominated. Mr. D. E. Fifield, of the Third has served one term in the Council some years ago, and is one of our successful business men. Mr. A. P. Bennett, of the Fourth ward, is another of Janesville's wide awake, successful business men, and will make a first class representative in the council. A council composed of such men, could not but act for the best interests and prosperity of the city.

A quiet, but exceedingly happy wedding, took place in Beloit, yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Henry P. Higley. The contracting parties being Mr. John S. Airis, of Mt. Zion, Rock county, and Miss Jennie M. Davies, daughter of Mrs. Martha Davies, of the Second ward, this city. They were accompanied to Beloit by Mr. Fred H. Davies, brother of the bride, and Miss Kittie A. Russ, and Mr. and Mrs. Myron B. Clark, of Mt. Zion. On their return to the city last evening they were greeted, at the home of the bride's mother, by a small company of intimate friends, who partook with them of an elegant wedding supper, after which the happy couple repaired to Mt. Zion, where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Airis are well known and highly esteemed in this city and will carry with them to their new home the hearty congratulations of a large circle of friends.

The funeral services of Mr. Peter Neyhart were held yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the 1st M. E. church. The sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. D. J. Holmes, from the words "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." He spoke feelingly of the pure, gentle, life of the deceased that impressed upon who came in contact with him the nobleness of his character. Mr. Neyhart had been a member of the 1st Methodist church for some years, and was highly esteemed by the membership. The Temple of Honor, of which was also a member attended in a body and acted as an escort to the funeral procession through the city. The remains were taken to the cemetery in the town of Janesville about four miles from the city. Thus one by one the gray heads fall and are laid at rest, and another generation is passing from the turmoil and strife of earth.

Ray Putnam, who attempted on Saturday night to drown his sorrows of unreturned love by swallowing an ounce of laudanum, and who came near being a subject for a post mortem examination, as well as furnishing a first class item for the daily papers, is all right to-day. The young man came up from Beloit on Saturday evening, and after indulging somewhat in intoxicating drink, called upon his lady love. For some reason he was received very coldly, and he left, and on his way to his mother's house, in the First ward, he purchased an ounce of laudanum, which he drank. On reaching his home, he regretted the rash act of attempting to take his own life, and awakened his mother and informed her of what he had done. Dr. Sutherland was immediately called, and on the Doctor's arrival Young Putnam was unconscious, and nearly dead, but after several hours' labor and the administration of the needed remedies, he was restored to consciousness, and is now able to be about.

MUSKEMENTS.

HOWORTH'S DOUBLE SHOW.

To-morrow evening Howorth's grand Hibernia will give a performance at Myers' Opera house. The show consists of a comedy company of excellent ability, and a panorama of Ireland. The Hamilton (Ontario) Times says:

Howorth's Double show opened at the City Hall last night to a packed house. The scenery is fresh and bright and the views of the leading cities and landscapes in Ireland exceedingly good, and admirably described by their pleasing lecturer. In addition to the panorama, there is an excellent olio performance of singing and dancing, with instrumental accompaniment. The concert is a real novelty of patronage. There is lots of fun of a bright and sparkling kind without the least shadow of coarseness. This afternoon there will be a matinee, and to-night the company appear for the last time with an entire change of programme. Those who attend will be sure to be well pleased.

THE OBERLINS.

There was a regular shower of good music at the Guards' armory on Saturday evening, the occasion being the appearance of the Oberlin Glee Club. The club is composed of sixteen trained male singers, who have received thorough instruction from Professor Chamberlain, at the Oberlin College, and who is leader in the series of concerts now being given by the club. The programme proper consisted of sixteen very popular numbers, and the recalls added a half a dozen more to the programme which made the concert the best, longest and most satisfactory of any which has been given in Janesville for years. Among the very fine solo singers were Mr. Brooks, a pure tenor, Mr. Swift, baritone, Mr. Bradley, base, and last, but the best, Professor Chamberlain, who is an exceedingly good tenor. The choruses were most excellent and loudly applauded. The audience was moderate in size, and those who stayed away thinking that it was an ordinary concert, were badly disappointed. It was a musical feast and a very sumptuous one, and all who were fortunate in attending made a splendid investment.

A Card From Dr. Palmer.

To the Editor.

I notice in a circular to the electors of the Twelfth Judicial Circuit, which is being extensively circulated, reference is made to papers on file, with the clerk of the circuit court of Rock county, in the case of Dr. Henry Palmer against John R. Bennett, that Mr. Bennett entered the plea of statute limitation to prevent judgment.

In justice to myself and to Mr. Bennett, I desire to say that the statements so far are correct; but that Mr. Bennett "relieved his conscience from the binding power of a contract" by such a plea is incorrect, as my claim against him was honorably adjusted years since, and has been paid in full with interest.

HENRY PALMER.

Janesville, April 3, 1882.

Mr. Ward Declines.

To the Democratic Ward Committee of the Second Ward:

GENTLEMEN—I thank you sincerely for the honor you have conferred upon me by nominating me for alderman of the Second Ward; but I must positively decline, as my business calls me from home most of the time, and I could not possibly do justice to the office duties if elected.

Respectfully Yours,

D. C. WARD.

Killed by Lightning.

We learn, from Mr. C. L. Brown, that a farm hand, in the employ of Mr. Thomas Tronson, who resides on Koshkonong Prairie, in the town of Albion, Dane county, while plowing in the field at six o'clock this morning, was struck by a bolt of lightning, killing the man and horses almost instantly. It seems that Mr. Tronson's family, who were in the house at the time, saw the bolt of lightning, and ran up stairs, supposing that the house had been struck. On reaching the upper part of the house and looking out into the field they saw the man, (whose name our informant did not know, as he had not recently been employed) and the team lying upon the ground. Mr. Tronson went immediately to assist them, and upon his arrival, the man and one of the horses were breathing, but both expired in a few minutes after. The lightning appeared to strike the man first, upon the head, and passing down his arms to the plow, was conducted to the horses.

A Valuable Gift.

A great many in this city will remember with pleasure Miss Josephine Miller, daughter of Colonel Ezra Miller, who was a resident of Janesville years ago. Miss Miller received her education here and at Rockford, and was a devout and active member of Christ Church, of this city. She is now the wife of Mr. M. L. Hinman, secretary and treasurer of the Brooks Locomotive works, of Dunkirk, New York, where they live in the enjoyment of prosperity and a wide circle of warm friends. We say this much by way of introducing the following article from the Dunkirk (New York) Journal, of Wednesday, March 15:

"At the Lake Shore freight house on Monday we noticed a large fine church bell from the Menely bell foundry at Troy, inscribed, 'Presented to St. John's Episcopal church, Dunkirk, by Mrs. M. L. Hinman, Easter Sunday, April 9, 1882.' It is evidently intended as an Easter offering by the estimable lady, and will no doubt be a very acceptable one to the congregation of St. John's Episcopal church. The bell weighs 2,100 pounds and will be first used in ringing in the Easter morning."

Mrs. Hinman's many friends in Janesville will deeply appreciate her generosity toward the church of which she is so faithful a member.

The Death of James Edwards.

James Edwards, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Edwards, of this city, who was severely mangled on Friday evening, March 24th, by falling between a caboose and a freight car on the Madison and Milwaukee air line, near Deerfield, died at Madison on Sunday morning at ten minutes past six. His remains were brought to this city this forenoon, accompanied by the mother of the deceased, and his sister, Mrs. Owen. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mrs. Edwards, near the Baptist church, at 10:30 o'clock on Tuesday morning, and the Rev. D. F. Davies, of the Congregational church will officiate.

The family of the unfortunate young man have the deepest sympathy of the community. It was hoped that James would recover, and from the first report of the accident, that hope did not seem to be ill-founded. Mr. Edwards went to Madison, immediately upon receipt of the sad intelligence of the accident, and remained there three days and left his son doing well. He grew worse, however, when Mr. Edwards returned and held a consultation with the surgeons, when he was informed that the case was liable to terminate fatally in lock-jaw, which proved too true, and on Sunday morning he died as stated.

The Democratic Convention.

The Democratic City Convention met in the City Hall, on Saturday evening, and was called to order by Wm. Smith, chairman of the committee, who was made chairman of the convention, and Thomas Lahay chosen secretary. After the list of delegates were read from the various wards, embracing seventy-five names, an informal ballot was taken for mayor, Messrs. R. B. Williams, A. O. Wilson and J. B. Fitzgibbon being appointed tellers. The ballot resulted as follows:

INFORMAL BALLOT FOR MAYOR.

J. W. St. John.

T. T. Croft.

J. B. Doe.

A. Rogers.

H. Hageny.

F. Abbott.

At this announcement the name of St. John was withdrawn, and after several attempts to procure a formal ballot had failed, Mr. T. T. Croft, was nominated by acclamation.

The balance of the ticket was nominated by acclamation, and is as follows:

For City Clerk—Cole McLean.

City Treasurer—J. M. Haseltun.

Justice—A. D. Wickham.

City Attorney—Wm. Smith.

Sealer—James S. McGowan.

The city committee named is as follows:

George C. Sutherland.

Ed. Connell.

Ed. McKoy.

C. L. Clark.

A. O. Wilson.

M. I. C.

The Mutual Improvement Club will open the study of the play Henry VII this evening.

The subjects for conversation are as follows:

A. The contemporaries of Henry VII on the thrones of Europe.

B. The condition of literature and art on the continent.

C. The position and power of Spain.

D. The political situation.

Papers will be read by Miss Hathrell, on "condition of the Peasantry socially, educationally, and religiously." By Miss De Ette Howard on "The Historic buildings mentioned in the Day with illustrations. This will be an interesting session.

Miss King Declines.

I notice in the Sunday Recorder that I am nominated for school commissioner; and, while I fully appreciate the honor conferred upon me, I positively decline being a candidate at the coming election.

Respectfully,

ANNE J. KING.
